BRIGHTON COLLEGE

Executive Summary

Brighton College and Intellego Education are building a high-quality family of premium schools across continental Europe. The intent is to open schools in a number of key European cities, to complement both Intellego's existing schools, and the Brighton College group of schools. Brighton College Madrid will open in 2027 as one of the first three schools for this partnership. Accordingly, Intellego Education and Brighton College are seeking an outstanding, inspirational and ambitious Director Técnico to start in April 2027.

This is an exciting opportunity for an experienced Spanish curriculum and compliance leader to help set up, and shape the development of a brand-new school in Madrid. During the pre-opening year, they will work closely with the Head and the Senior Deputy on the Spanish language and culture curriculum, on authorisation and inspection readiness, and on the academic documentation and regulatory frameworks on which the school will depend. The Director Técnico for Brighton College Madrid will need to embody and embed the distinctive Brighton College values and ensure that the school operates at the highest possible level.

The school should be both internationally outward-looking and rooted in an understanding of Spanish language, culture and heritage and parents should expect to see and feel an ethos of excellence throughout the school. In realising this vision for Brighton College Madrid, the Director Técnico will be supported by both Intellego Education and Brighton College International.

The successful candidate will combine a track record of successful Spanish curriculum and compliance leadership, developed in the UK and/or internationally, with the cultural awareness and global perspective to inspire the youngest members of our community and manage diverse stakeholder relationships. The Director Técnico will act as the College's principal liaison with the Spanish educational authorities and the inspectorate, and will be expected to work particularly hard on the curriculum documentation and inspection readiness that Brighton College Madrid will require.

Previous experience of start-up, or a clear understanding of what is involved, will be beneficial. As a new school, the successful candidate should be experienced in, and excited by, all the issues, complexities and opportunities associated with growing a community from start-up to established school phase, distinctive in its own right but with the Brighton College DNA running right through it. The successful candidate is also likely to have a background rooted in academic success, with a secure understanding of what constitutes excellent teaching and a deep understanding of timetabling, curriculum and the leadership and management of teams; whilst also being committed to a holistic, values-based, education underpinned by outstanding pastoral care.

This role represents a career-defining professional challenge for a candidate who shares our aim of developing well-educated, respectful and intellectually curious young men and women, ready to take a full, active and positive role in the world.

The Brighton College Family of Schools

Brighton College was one of the first UK independent schools to take its distinctive approach to education to markets beyond the UK. From the outset of this international development in 2011, when Brighton College Abu Dhabi opened, its driving ambition has been to ensure each new addition to their family of schools is recognisably a Brighton College school. The BCI group now has schools in: Abu Dhabi (2011), Al Ain (2013), Bangkok (2016), Dubai (2018), Singapore (2020), London (2023), Hanoi (2023), and Bangkok Vibhavadi (2025).

Brighton College Madrid will be one of three new continental European schools, with sister schools opening in Rome (2027) and Lisbon (2028).

Brighton College UK

Brighton College – awarded the title of ‘School of the Decade’ by The Sunday Times – is consistently recognised as the UK’s leading co-educational independent school. Academic results place Brighton College in the top 10 schools in England, and in 2026, the school ranked No.1 in the UK for GCSE results (The Times).

In addition to the ‘School of the Decade’ award in 2020, Brighton College has achieved numerous other recent accolades, such as: Most Forward Looking School in Britain (The Week); Top School in Britain for STEM Subjects (The Week); Best Sixth Form in Britain (The Week); Top School for A levels 2025 (The Sunday Times) and Best 125 Private Schools across the Globe (Carfax Education). Brighton College international schools are also award-winning. In October 2024, Brighton College Bangkok won the ‘British International School of the Year Award’. In October 2025, Brighton College Al Ain became the second Brighton school to win the prestigious ‘British International School of the Year Award’.

Brighton College International

Every Brighton College international school is a happy place, with a warm, inclusive and respectful community. They promote curiosity and a love of learning from the Early Years pupils, right through to the leavers at age 18. This is one of the reasons why Brighton College pupils achieve outstanding qualifications and go onto many of the world’s top universities.

Academic endeavour alone is not the full story, however, and exam results, excellent though they are, do not fully reflect the richness of a Brighton education. This becomes clear through meeting the pupils: all visitors comment on their confidence – the right sort of confidence – which arises from their being encouraged to participate in lessons and the co-curriculum; to take an active interest in, and involve themselves with, the community beyond the school gates; to learn to collaborate and show one another kindness and respect. The schools constantly stress the importance of kindness and encourage pupils actively to seek opportunities to demonstrate their commitment to this vital quality.

Brighton and Intellego share a common philosophy that all schools receive appropriate support, whilst also having the necessary autonomy to lead their school and ensure it works most effectively in its local context. In addition to support with quality assurance from Brighton College UK, there are numerous instances of further collaboration within our family of schools. These include professional development for teachers, pupil competitions, shared webinars and guest speakers. Pupils from across the family of schools are invited to participate in the Brighton College Games, hosted by Brighton College Bangkok in 2027, and there are opportunities for senior school pupils to visit the College in the UK as part of their preparation for university and future careers. Alumni from every school are part of the Brighton College Connect network, with several thousand members.

Intellego

Intellego develops and stewards exceptional schools across Europe. Our ambition is to create schools of lasting significance combining educational excellence, strong leadership and long-term vision with the individual character and identity that make great schools distinctive.

Intellego is led by Dr Stephen Spurr, Executive Chairman, and Christopher Stacey, Chief Executive Officer. Between them, they bring experience spanning the leadership, development and oversight of more than 120 schools across multiple countries and jurisdictions. Dr Spurr has led some of the UK's most distinguished schools, including Westminster School and Clifton College, following earlier leadership roles at Eton College. Christopher Stacey is an experienced international education executive and former CEO and CFO of CATS Global Schools, with a track record spanning the leadership, transformation and growth of international schools and education groups across multiple markets.

Intellego is backed by H.I.G. Capital, a leading global infrastructure fund. This combination of deep educational expertise, proven experience operating at scale and long-term institutional backing provides a strong foundation for Intellego's ambitions and continued investment in exceptional schools.

We believe exceptional schools are built for the long term. Each Intellego school retains its own identity, culture and character, while benefiting from the expertise, investment and opportunities of a wider international group.

For our people, this creates something distinctive: the opportunity to help shape outstanding schools, not simply work within them. As Intellego grows, colleagues have opportunities to collaborate across schools and countries, contribute to the development of an ambitious European education group and build their careers within institutions committed to the highest standards.

Exceptional schools. Distinctive places.

About Brighton College Madrid

Primacy of the Classroom - The Heart of the School

The school will engender an ethos amongst its pupils and staff where academic success stems from the development of a life-long love of learning and outstanding pastoral care, where individuality is celebrated, and where the importance of kindness is embedded within the school community.

The Spanish language, history and culture is also central to the curriculum, where pupils participate in a range of cultural events and activities to further their understanding of, and respect for, the rich heritage of the country in which they live.

Junior School (Nursery - Year 6)

Teaching in Nursery and Reception is based on the Early Years Foundation Stage (EYFS) framework. In Key Stages 1 and 2, pupils follow the English National Curriculum (ENC), enhanced in line with our aspirational outlook and the Brighton College DNA, and modified to reflect the location and international mix of pupils attending the school. Pupils are taught by talented, enthusiastic class teachers, with a significant emphasis on English, mathematics and Spanish language development. Specialist teachers work with children across specific subject areas such as drama, music, dance, art and design, computing and technology, languages, physical education and swimming.

Middle School (Years 7 - 9)

Pupils move into the Middle School in Year 7, where the curriculum is underpinned by the English National Curriculum and enhanced with the incorporation of many elements of the Brighton College DNA, such as Story of Our Land (integrated humanities), public speaking and entrepreneurship, while also continuing with the specialist subjects from the Junior School.

The curriculum is academically rigorous and designed specifically for pupils learning in an international community, whilst maintaining a strong local context. In Year 9 pupils also lay the foundations for successful transition to IGCSE, familiarising themselves with the specialist subject matter and terminology and making informed subject choices.

Senior School (Years 10 - 13)

IGCSE (Years 10 - 11)

On moving into the Senior School in Year 10, pupils begin the IGCSE syllabuses for which they sit the examinations at the end of Year 11. After the examinations and before the end of that year, pupils begin the transition to the IB Diploma, to familiarise themselves with its structure and approach to teaching and learning, and to enable them to be fully informed when choosing their Higher and Standard Level subjects.

IB Diploma (Years 12 - 13)

From the start of Year 12 all pupils enjoy the benefits of the The Diploma Club and Study. This special feature is a multifunctional space designed both for the quiet, independent study and relaxed social events appropriate for the school's senior pupils. It is also the base from which the IB Co-ordinator and Tutors provide academic assistance and university and careers guidance.

At the end of Year 13, pupils will sit their IB examinations and can expect to be well-supported on pathways to world-class universities in Spain, elsewhere in Europe, the UK, USA and beyond.

The Co-Curriculum Life Beyond the Classroom

The Arts

Artistic endeavour encourages the pupils to be curious, courageous and original, and in doing so, enlivens and complements the academic life of the school. The school campus has performance and rehearsal spaces for art, music, dance and drama for pupils of all ages, in keeping with the educational philosophy that every pupil should be involved throughout their school career in the creative and performing arts.

Sport

Our 'sport for all' ethos supports our top athletes in addition to allowing all pupils to experience, enjoy and succeed in a wide variety of team and individual sports. The school benefits from both the first-class facilities on the school campus and access to a wide array of further sports facilities nearby. Our schools operate competitive fixture programmes, giving pupils the opportunity to participate in matches both locally and further afield.

Activities

Co-curricular activities on offer beyond timetabled lessons reflect the diverse skills, interest and enthusiasms of our community. From robotics, to creative writing, to academic societies, to Model United Nations, each individual pupil is able to try something different and develop new skills while also strengthening current talents and taking them to new heights.

Social Responsibility

Social responsibility and community service are essential elements of our make-up. We believe everyone from an early age can play an active part in society, and we encourage all our pupils to become involved with community and global initiatives, helping and thinking of others and developing those qualities of kindness and respect fundamental to our ethos.

In this way also, by the time pupils reach Years 12 and 13 they are fully equipped to make the most of the opportunity offered by the community service element of the IB Diploma's CAS programme.

Campus and Facilities

Opening in September 2027, the school community will be based in the affluent residential suburb of Aravaca, known for its high-quality of life, leafy surroundings and proximity to the centre of Madrid.

The large campus comprises one building currently undergoing a comprehensive refurbishment to create a modern, inspiring environment for learning and growth from Nursery through to the IB Diploma. Brighton College Madrid will include all the purpose-built facilities to deliver the uniquely powerful Brighton academic and creative and performing arts curriculum, with dedicated outdoor learning areas and playgrounds for Early Years and Prep, and the full range of sporting facilities accessible nearby.

Brighton College Madrid's purpose-built facilities will include:

- Contemporary classrooms and specialist teaching spaces designed to support a rigorous, co- educational academic programme and reflect the exceptional quality of our academic staff
- Indoor-outdoor learning and play areas thoughtfully integrated across the campus to enrich both pupil and staff experiences
